

Counselling Program for Public Safety personnel Debongshi Chakma

He is interested in helping individuals struggling with anxiety, depression, trauma, PTSD and mental health-related issues and providing them with tools and techniques to understand the art of conscious and healthy living. As part of my unique spiritual training, I offer holistically-integrated psychotherapy from a non-judgmental perspective. Please get in touch with me for details on getting my help for low to no-cost rates!!

Debongshi is a trained Spiritual Counsellor, Registered Psychotherapist, and Meditation Teacher with over 30 years of experience in the field. He has worked with diverse populations, including adults, adolescents, couples, and families, and has provided individual and group counselling.

He studied psychology and emotional intelligence (EI) project management (PM), earned a B.A. (Hons) degree in Buddhist studies, and studied Master of Arts in Counselling Psychology at Yorkville University. Debongshi is a member of the Canadian Counselling and Psychotherapy Association (CCPA), a Registered Psychotherapist, qualifying from the College of Registered Psychotherapists of Ontario (CRPO), and a qualified member of the Ontario Society of Registered Psychotherapists (OSRP). He aims to support and empower people throughout their healing process and make a change in their lives. Debongshi also wants to further his therapeutic skills and deepen his ability to support clients in their healing journey.
